Instructions

- In addition to registering your hives, as a beekeeper in Western Australia, you are required to lodge your return and pay fee-for-service annually. Beekeepers should have received a prefilled version of this form (electronically or by post) from the Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development. If you have not received your prefilled form from DPIRD, you can complete and submit this manual return form.
- Failure to lodge your return, or the reporting of false or misleading information may result in a penalty. If you would like to know more about how your APC fees are used to support the industry, see www.apcwa.org.au.
- The information collected in this form is used for the primary purpose of delivering of services authorised under the Agricultural Produce Commission Act 1988. If you would like to read our privacy statement, please refer to <https://apcwa.org.au/publications/acts-regulations>.
- As a fee-for-service payer, you may be entitled to free membership of industry bodies such as BICWA. Please indicate if you authorise the APC to share your payment status with BICWA for the purpose of supporting your free membership
